Dear Parents and Carers

Welcome back to the ultimate term for 2015 at Kyeemagh. It is hard to believe how fast time has flown. Yes we are in for lots of new learning and engagement for everyone.

With the hot weather upon us so early, a quick reminder to please make sure that your child has a hat with his or her name clearly labelled. We cannot do hat sharing for obvious health reasons.

At the end of term you will receive a written report of your child’s achievements during Semester Two. Please arrange a time to meet with your child’s teacher if you require further feedback. There is no formal parent/teacher interview unless you specifically request it. Please do not hesitate to make an appointment at any time if you have any questions and concerns.

Welcome back everyone!

During the holidays the school ran a very successful Bunnings BBQ and raised over $1900.

Thank you to Mrs Grant, Tanya & Jeff Cini, Mark Windchester, Jackie & David Farrar, Renee & Kylie Harris, Craig (Eruera’s dad), Sharmaine (Cody’s mum) and Mary & Alastair (Toby’s parents) who manned the stall. Thank you for giving up a Saturday in the middle of the holidays to help raise money for our school.

Many exciting things are being planned for this term!

Save the date – eBay on the Bay in coming!

Saturday 24th October is the big day.

Parents, we will need all hands on deck in preparation and on the day.

Please start putting aside suitable items to donate for our “Garage Sale” component of the day – clothing, books, toys, bric-a-brac, house hold items.

One man’s trash is another man’s treasure.

Special school lunches will begin again soon.

This term will be busy and fun.
